

12.19 Cycling (Friday, Saturday and Sunday)

Cycling takes place on Friday (17:00-22:00) on campus and Saturday (09.30-19.00) and Sunday (09.30-16.00) on the cycling track in Oldenzaal.

General

1. A maximum of one men's and one women's team can be registered per OSSO/educational institution. A women's team consists of a minimum of 3 and a maximum of 6 persons. A men's team consists of a minimum of 4 and a maximum of 6 persons.
2. When participating in the cycling part of the GNSK 2020, the participant agrees with these regulations.
3. The team of an OSSO may only consist of students who meet the conditions set out in chapter 1 of the SSN event regulations. If this rule is violated, the team will be disqualified.
4. If an unauthorised participant participates in the GNSK, a fine of €200 will be charged to the OSSO for which that participant is eligible. The results of the team in question will also be cancelled.
5. The team assignments have to be done by the team leader at the race secretariat before the start of the first race.
6. Participation is at your own risk and each competitor has to be insured.
7. Participants are not obliged to have a KNWU license or NTFU membership.
8. At least one week before the event the teams have to have indicated which riders will ride the sprint cup, head to head, the sprint point race and/or the climb point race.
9. Each rider signs up prematurely for participation in at least three events, for which the organisation will offer the possibility in time.
10. The teams must be present and ready at the time indicated in the race schedule. A team must wear uniform clothing and will be given back numbers by the organisation.
11. Bicycles and equipment must comply with the knwu regulations for 'funklasse' competitions (<https://www.knwu.nl/kenniscentrum/renner/reglement-funklasse>).
12. The jury and/or organisation has the right to postpone, stop, cancel or refuse participants if safety is in doubt.
13. As far as no exception is made in the above points, the regulations of the KNWU are in force.
14. For each event, a team result will be made on the basis of the total of individual points obtained from the first three riders of the team. Subsequently, based on these team results, points will be awarded for the final classification. The distribution of points is as follows:

Position	Points
1	10,1
2	8
3	6
4	4
5	3
6	2
7 and below	1

The team with the most points wins the general classification.

15. The first three participants per team will be awarded points.
16. In case of an equal number of points, the last competition part will be decisive for the final result.

17. In all cases the organization reserves the right to make binding decisions.

Sprint cup

1. Each team delegates the pre-registered riders to the sprint cup.
2. There are two categories: ladies and gentlemen, they ride separately.
3. The distance is approximately 200 meters.
4. The starting order of the participants will be announced before the start of the GNSK.
5. Several riders will start at the same time, of which the fastest riders will continue to the next lap.
6. The amount of points scored is calculated with the achieved rounds and the results in them.

Head over head

1. Each team delegates the pre-registered riders to the breakaway race.
2. There are two categories: ladies and gentlemen.
3. A men's team starts with four riders and rides four laps. A women team will start with three riders and will ride three laps.
4. During the front-to-head race one rider drops out every lap. This rider is not allowed to ride in front of his team after passing the finish line under penalty of a time penalty or disqualification.
5. The time of the last remaining rider will lead to a classification in which the fastest team gets the maximum points.
6. The starting order of the teams will be announced before the start of the GNSK.
7. 'Stayeren' with other teams is not allowed and will lead to disqualification.
8. Timekeeping will start at the time indicated in advance. The riders will then start from standstill.

Points races

1. Each team delegates the pre-registered riders to the sprint points race and/or the climb points race.
2. Each points race is ridden by a team of maximum 3 riders. If a team consists of 6 riders, each team member rides either the sprint points race or the climb points race. If a team consists of less than 6 riders, one rider may participate in both parts. All riders have to compete on at least one of both parts.
3. At both events there are points to be scored per pass at the finish line. The team with the most points wins the climb points course/sprint points race.
4. In case of material failure or a crash, the rider may request 1 round of compensation from the jury.

Road race

1. In the road race, all riders of each team will start, if employable.
2. The ladies and the men ride separately.
3. It is forbidden to enter the course while there is still a race in progress.
4. The riders will complete a predetermined number of laps. The jury will indicate each lap at the finish how many laps remain to be ridden.
5. The jury may have groups of riders who have been discharged sprint earlier.
6. If a participant leaves the race, he has to unsubscribe at the jury.
7. Riders who have doubled must leave the race, taking into account article 6.
8. Riders who leave the race, whether forced or not, will not be awarded points.

9. In the event of a material failure or a crash, the jury may decide to award a maximum of one round of compensation. In order to qualify, the participant concerned must report to the start/finish.
